GREETINGS

To all of our friends and customers . . . from Brownwood, Texas to Bangor, Maine . . . from Bellingham, Washington to Birmingham, Alabama, we offer our sincere "Thanks" for past orders and for your warm letters of appreciation and friendship. It has been our pleasure to have served you in a manner to merit continued confidence in our ability and steadfast desire to supply the utmost in quality at all times. A very special Thank You to those among you who are "Charter Customers"! We are honored by your continued patronage and pledge our efforts to maintain a wide variety of modern, desirable iris for your selection.

To irisarians traveling to or from the AIS National Convention in Portland, Oregon (Dates—May 18th thru 21st) we extend a hearty Welcome to visit our gardens. Good bloom should coincide with these dates assuring a fine display of Guest Irises and numerous recent introductions.

Walla Walla is located on direct Northern and Western Routes, with excellent accommodations for travelers.

Cordially yours,

Tom and Opal Brown

INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1960

From our own originations we have selected for introduction this season—BLUE SAILS, a lovely self of French Blue, whose every bloom will thrill you with its flaring form and magnificent substance . . . FULL DRESS, a beautifully formed clean Aureolin Yellow, fascinatingly laced and ruffled throughout. This iris will be of value to breeders since it has both lace and clarity of color plus the recessive factor for red beards . . . Finally, DAWN FLIGHT, a distinctive new Dawn Pink from the famous Picture Bouquet and May Hall. The Azalea pink beard is very pleasing; the gracefully flaring falls give this iris the appearance of being "in flight." These new iris are fertile both ways.

BLUE SAILS

$20.00

(O. Brown '60) Height 30" . . . Early to Midseason ((Pierre Menard x Jane Phillips) x Swan Ballet) This lovely self of French Blue has extraordinary width and substance. The standards are closed and firmly held and the falls are wide and flaring with a pale yellow beard tipped blue. The entire flower is very weather resistant even though the blooms are a bit large for the height of the sturdy stalk. This characteristic will be a distinct advantage in windy areas since the substance of the large flowers is indeed superb.

DAWN FLIGHT

$25.00

(O. Brown '60) 34", midseason (Picture Bouquet x May Hall) This very distinctive light pink self has an Azalea pink beard, exceptional purity of color . . . and the form and substance to show it off to advantage. The flowers are very flaring yet charmingly ruffled, well spaced on nicely branched stalks.

H.C. AIS 1959 Sdlg. No. 7-25A-1—

FULL DRESS

$25.00

(O. Brown '60) 36", midseason (Gay Princess x Country Cuzzin') Beautifully laced Aureolin Yellow self with a Saffron Yellow beard. The large flowers have well domed standards and the graceful falls are semi-flaring. All flower parts are lavishly trimmed in lace. Stalk and branching are good.

CO-INTRODUCTIONS

We are pleased to Co-Introduce with Dr. Chas. E. Branch of Piper City, Ill., his lovely white iris, so aptly named Piety. This magnificent iris has earned much admiration during two years of testing here at Sunnyhill . . .

PIETY

Net $20.00

(Branch '60) mid-season, height 36 to 40". Parentage: Snow Goddess x sdlg ((Winter Carnival x Azure Skies) x White Sentry x (Great Lakes x Winter Carnival) x Sib). Piety was so named because it reminds one of quiet reverence, devotion and benevolence like the white angel standing silently in a Christmas tableau. It is a white white with a very light lemon cast to the beard. It is neither plain nor fancy, tailored or lacy, but has a full form with semi-flaring fluted falls and strong domed standards. The hafts are wide and clean. Excellent, sturdy stalk, good branching and larger than average flowers.

H.C. AIS, 1958.

From Donald J. Boen of Walla Walla, Wash., we bring you a lovely Aril bred iris in rich spectrum violet . . . SPRING NOCTURNE in Co-Introduction with Jack Linse of Easy Breeze Gardens, Yakima, Wash.—Here is an Aril bred of superb form, coloring and branching, with proven vigor, hardiness, and dependability of bloom over a three year testing period in our gardens.

SPRING NOCTURNE

$20.00

(D. Boen '60) Early to midseason, Arilbred (Sable x Capitola) A rich, deep Spectrum Violet. At the tip of the deep violet beard is a velvety black signal patch from which heavy black veining radiates outward to the edges of the wide, rounded falls. Large, heavy substandard flowers of full Mohr shape are carried on slender, well branched, 32" stalks. Vigorous and a free bloomer. Has pollen and sets seed.
